Numb. 4016

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday September 21. to Monday September 25. 1704

Windsor, September 23. The following Address from the City of Bristol was presented to Her Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Ormond, their High Steward.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common Council of Your City of Bristol.

AS the Glorious Victory which it pleased GOD to give Your Majesty's Troops, and those of Your Allies, at Blenheim, has struck Your Enemies with Terrour and Confusion, so it has given to us, and all other Your Majesty's Subjects, the highest Admiration and greatest Pleasure, to contemplate the Advantages we all enjoy under Your Majesty's Government; but more especially for Your Majesty's Magnanimity, in commanding Your Army through many Difficulties into so remote a Country, and Your Wisdom, in judging rightly both of the Emergency and happy Consequences of that March.

Nor is Your Majesty's Sagacity less discerned in Your Choice of the Duke of Marlborough to be Captain-General of Your Forces: To whose Conduct and Personal Gallantry, (inspir'd by the Command, and assisted by the Blessings attending so Pious a QUEEN) no small Share of the Glorious Success of that Day is justly owing.

We therefore Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, do on this Occasion (which adds so much Glory to Your Majesty's great Name, Honour to Your General, and loudly proclaims the good Discipline and Courage of Your Officers and Soldiers, and affords so many Benefits and pleasing Prospects to all other Your Subjects) humbly take Leave to lay this our Congratulatory Address at Your Royal Feet; heartily beseeching Almighty God every day more and more to Crown Your Majesty with Success, and to Bless Your Confederates and all Your Subjects with Your Majesty's very long Reign.

The following Address was presented to Her Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord Brooke, Recorder of the Borough of Warwick.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Warwick.

MADAM,

WHEN the whole World does more or less partake in the Influences of that Glorious Victory, obtained chiefly by the Forces of Your Majesty, under the Command of Your own General the Duke of Marlborough; A Victory, the Compleatness of which renders it even dangerous to keep: When Sea and Land are the Scenes of, and contending which shall most suitably adorn Your Triumphs; it would be impious Ingratitude in the meanest Subject, who enjoys but the common Blessings of Your Government, the Air and Liberties of England, not to be transported with such Successes, and implore Heaven for the Continuance of them.

Permit us then, Your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, with a Joy equal to our Duty, and, if possible, to so illustrious an Occasion heightened by all the Sentiments that Love and Gratitude can inspire, for Your late Royal Munificence extended to this Borough, humbly to beg Leave to congratulate the same.

When we consider Your Majesty's most accurate Judgment in the Choice of Your General; Your Wisdom in advancing him to such a Greatness, as raises him above the Mercenary Arts of prolonging War; and Your Goodness, that has no sooner rescued the Religion and Liberties of Your own Subjects from the Danger of the Sworn Enemy of both, but is communicating those invaluable Blessings to Princes, States and Cities, who claim Your Protection, and have it;

When we consider Your Majesty's incessant Care of the Publick; the admirable Conduct of Your Treasury; and the unexampled Frugality of the Royal Oeconomy; which enables You powerfully to support Oppressed States abroad, and provide, at the same time, for the greatest Ease of our otherwise most happy Constitution, the Poverty of Your Clergy:

When we consider, lastly, That Your Majesty conquers for Peace, and the Rights of Mankind, and not Extent of Dominion or Power; That You have saved an Empire, loos'd the Chains of Kings, and given a fatal Blow to the second Attempt of Universal Monarchy; we are apt to conclude, That the Glory and Happiness of England is reserv'd for its Queens, and engages our most ardent Prayers for Your Majesty's long and happy Reign, and a Succession of Princes of Your own Blood, and very many of the same Sex.

Given under our Common Seal this 16th day of September, Anno Dom. 1704.

The following Address from the City of Rochester was presented to Her Majesty by Edward Knatchbull Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common Council, Freemen and Inhabitants, of the City of Rochester.

PERMIT us, most Gracious Sovereign, humbly to Congratulate Your Majesty upon the late Glorious Victories wherewith GOD has blest Your Arms, in the entire Overthrow and Ruine of the French and Bavarian armies in Germany, and in the late Signal Defeat of the united Power of France by Sea.

As the first of these, a Victory so incomparably Great and Compleat, so highly conducing to the Advantage of the Common Cause, cannot but be allow'd to have advanc'd the antient Glory of the English Nation to its utmost height; and the latter to have convinc'd Your Enemies, That Your Fleet can now be Victorious, even when inferior in Force; and that no Difficulties or Disadvantages are too great to be surmounted by the unadainted Courage and Bravery of Your English Seamen; so they seem to conspire most eminently to justify Your Majesty's great Wisdom in the Choice You were pleased to make of the Duke of Marlborough and Sir George Rooke to be the Chief Commanders of Your Army and Navy, who, by their own Personal Bravery and Conduct, have contributed so much to the obtaining these Glorious Successes, and have thereby made it evident to the World, That Your Majesty does never shew extraordinary Favours, but where You have first discern'd a more than ordinary Merit.

These present wonderful Successes of Your Majesty's Arms make us hope that You are design'd by Heaven to set Bounds to the Ambition of France, and to establish the Liberties of Europe. For this Glorious End, may the Almighty continue to Crown You with fresh Victories; and may all those unhappy Princes, who have conspired with the French King to enslave Christendom, receive (as most of them already have) the just Reward of their pernicious Designs, in the entire Loss of their Dominions.

The following Address was also presented to Her Majesty by Edward Knatchbull Esq;

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, Common Council, and Inhabitants, of the antient Towns of Gravesend and Milton.

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful Subjects, do with all Humility beg Leave to express our Joy for the late Glorious Victory obtained by Your Majesty's Arms at Land, under the Auspicious Conduct of the Duke of Marlborough, against the united Forces of France and Bavaria: And for the late signal Advantage gained by Your Majesty's Fleet, under the Command of Sir George Rooke, over the Naval Power of France by Sea.

That incomparable Wisdom Your Majesty has shewn in the Management of the Publick Treasure, the Choice of those eminent Commanders in Chief of Your Army and Navy, and in the whole Course of Your Government, gave Your Subjects just grounds to hope for all the Advantages that Humane Prudence could procure to them. But Victories like these, the one so entirely compleat, so extensive in its Consequences, and so much above even our highest Hopes and Expectations; the other gained under so many and great Disadvantages and Difficulties, as nothing but the good Conduct of the Officers, and the undaunted Courage of Your English Seamen, could have surmounted; ought to be ascribed to the immediate Hand of Providence. We cannot but believe that the great Giver of all Victory has been pleased thus to give You a visible Earnest of those Rewards that never fail to attend a Piety and Charity so truly great and eminent as Yours.

May

May the same good Providence, Madam, still continue to Protect Your Sacred Person, Direct Your Councils, Prosper Your Arms, and make You as much the Terrour of Your Enemies as You are justly the Delight and Glory of Your own Subjects.

The following Addreſs was likewiſe preſented to Her Majeſty.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital and other Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the borough of Stafford.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital and other Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of Your antient Borough of Stafford, humbly beg Leave to take this Opportunity of throwing our ſelves at Your Majeſty's Feet, moſt heartily to Congratulate the great and unparallell'd Succeſs of Your Forces, with thoſe of Your Allies, under the Conduct of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough. We can never enough admire the Vigour of Your Majeſty's Reſolutions, and the Readineſs and Expedition of Your General in the Execution of them; which have effectually delivered the Empire from its moſt inward, and conſequently moſt dangerous Enemies. Thus under an Auſpicious Providence Your Majeſty has retrieved the antient Glory of the Engliſh Nation; and has let Europe ſee, particularly the French, (its common Enemy) there are yet Engliſh Hearts and Hands, which retain the Valour and Vigour our Forefathers ſhewed in the very Heart of France. As we have returned to Almighty GOD our Praiſe and Thanks for theſe his great Benefits to Your Majeſty and Your People; ſo, That He will grant You a long, happy and proſperous Reign over us, and continue to Crown Your Armies with Victory and Succeſs, ſhall be the daily Prayers of Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and moſt Obedient Subjects.

The following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Rt. Hon. John Lord Poulett, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Devon, and of the City and County of Exeter.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council, of Your Majeſty's City of Exeter.

May it pleaſe Your moſt Sacred Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, think our ſelves indiſpenſably obliged to congratulate Your late Glorious Victory, obtained under the Auſpicious Conduct of the Duke of Marlborough; A Victory of that vaſt Moment and Importance; a Victory ſo tranſcendently ſignal, that it exceeded the utmoſt Extent of our Hopes; which not to commemorate, would be the blackeſt and moſt deteſtable Ingratitude.

The Spring and Original of this great and glorious Atchievement is to be aſcribed to Your Majeſty's prudent Choice of ſuch a brave and unparallel'd General, and to Your ſincere, exemplary and conſtant Piety and Devotion; for as Virtue ennobles and adorns Princes more than their Diadems, ſo by a Natural Efficacy and a Divine Bleſſing thereon, it crowns them with Succeſs too.

May Your Majeſty's moſt illuſtrious Fame be as laſting, but outſtrip the Current of the Danube; May Your Reign continue to be proſperous and immovably fixt in the Hearts of Your Subjects, its true and proper Centre: And when it ſhall pleaſe Divine Providence to tranſlate You hence, may You receive the juſt Retribution (which we dare prophecy that You will) of an Eternal Crown and Weight of Glory.

The following Addreſs has alſo been preſented to Her Majeſty.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgeſſes, Common Council, Grand Inqueſt, and other Inhabitants, of the Borough of Wareham, in the County of Dorſet, at their General Seſſions of the Peace, held the 30th day of Auguſt. In the Third Year of Your Majeſty's Reign.

PErmit us (Great Sovereign) amidſt Your many Loyal Subjects, to congratulate Your Majeſty on the Succeſs of Your Arms, in Conjunction with Your Allies; againſt the great Diſturber of Europe, the French King, and his little Favourite, the Elector of Bavaria; and with others to extol the great Conduct and Courage of Yours and their Generals and Soldiers.

To Your Majeſty's Goodneſs (under the Almighty) we aſcribe this Bleſſing; and O! may Your Arms continue to be Victorious, that thoſe Bleſſings of Peace, which have been ſo long ſought by and expected from many great Heroes, may be begun, carried on, and perfected, (to the Honour and Glory of our Engliſh Nation) by Your Majeſty, that France may be depreſs'd, and at laſt ſubdu'd, in the Reign of Your Majeſty.

That GOD Almighty may proſper You with a long and happy Reign over us; and bleſs You, with Your Royal Conſort, in a wiſe, prudent, and well-deſigning Council; a triumphant, valiant, and victorious Fleet and Army; That all Your Subjects may make it their Buſineſs, (as 'tis their Duty) in their ſeveral Stations, to ſerve You with all Fidelity and readineſs of Mind; That neither Faction at home, or Treachery, Cowardice or Corruption abroad, may divert Your Majeſty's Intentions and the Favour of Heaven; ſhall be the conſtant Prayers and Wiſhes of Your Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the Town of Dover was preſented to Her Majeſty by Matthew Aylmer and Philip Papillon Eſqs; their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats, Gentlemen, Common Council and Freemen, of the Town and Port of Dover.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, do (with moſt humble Gratitude to Almighty GOD) moſt heartily Congratulate the Glorious Succeſs of Your Majeſty's Arms over the French and Bavarian Forces in Germany.

May that Divine Providence which has hitherto protected Your Royal Perſon, and made You a Bleſſing to Your People, a Terrour to Your Enemies, a Support to the Proteſtant Intereſt and the Liberties of Europe, be continually propitious to theſe Your Majeſty's Glorious Deſigns, and make You a happy Inſtrument to Curb the Ambitious Power of the French King and all his Adherents, for the Tranquility and Safety of Your Majeſty's Dominions, and the common Welfare of Your Allies; and after a long and happy Reign here on Earth, beſtow upon Your Majeſty a Never-fading Crown of Glory in Heaven: Which are the conſtant and fervent Prayers of Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Obedient Subjects.

Windſor, Sept. 24. The following Addreſs has been preſented to Her Majeſty by the Honourable Dr. William Grahme, Dean of Wells, and Clerk of the Cloſet in Ordinary to Her Majeſty.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter, and the Parochial Clergy, of the Dioceſe of Bath and Wells.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Obedient and moſt Dutiful Subjects, the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Bath and Wells, Encouraged by the Permiſſion Your Majeſty has been pleaſed to give to our Brethren of other Dioceſes, moſt humbly beg Leave to approach Your Majeſty with the like Return of our particular and moſt obliged Gratitude, for the late Royal Gift of the Firſt-Fruits and Tenths; all of us being as highly ſenſible as any, of the great Goodneſs of Your Majeſty's ſurprizing Munificence; and there being very many among us whoſe meane Condition ſtands in no leſs need of that Augmentation which Your Majeſty's Piety has ſo Beneficently provided.

Thoſe Payments, which were in their Beginning very grievous to our Predeceſſors, when firſt raiſed to ſupport a foreign Tyranny; but were afterwards more willingly and juſtly yielded to our Royal Founders and Sovereign Protectors; Your Majeſty has been now pleaſed, in Your ſingular and wiſe Goodneſs, to beſtow in that Gracious Manner, that they muſt henceforth be made as well to the entire Content, as the general Advantage of Your Clergy; The one Part will always owe their more liberal Subſiſtence to this Your Majeſty's Bounty; and the better endowed muſt now take Pleaſure in their contributing that their Proportion to the Relief of their indigent Brethren; themſelves at the ſame time ſecured in the remaining Part, by Your Majeſty's having aſcertain'd that Proportional Sum, and diſcharged them from thoſe Arbitrary and Ruinous Demands, to which the Rigour of the Law might have ſubjected them before.

To Your Majeſty's zealous Concern for the Honour and Service of GOD, and the Good of Your Subjects; and to Your inceſſant and unaffected exemplary Devotion, we may pioufly attribute thoſe Glorious Succeſſes with which GOD hath been pleaſed ſo ſignally to bleſs Your Counſels and Arms. And that the Divine Goodneſs would be mercifully pleaſed long to continue Your Majeſty's precious Life, to the Protection of Your Allies, and to the Accompliſhing Your great Deſigns, for the laſting Proſperity of Your Country, and the firm Eſtabliſhment of the Church, is the Prayer of every good Man, and of, May it pleaſe Your Majeſty, Your Majeſty's moſt Humble and moſt Faithful Subjects and Servants.

The following Addreſs from the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of York in Common Council aſſembled, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Marquis of Carmarthen; his Grace the Duke of Leeds being indiſpoſed, to whom the ſaid Addreſs was ſent by that City.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of York, in Common Council aſſembled.

May it pleaſe Your moſt Sacred Majeſty,

TO permit us, Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, humbly to Congratulate Your Majeſty upon the great Victory at Schellenberg, and the Glorious one at Hainheim, obtained by Your Majeſty's Forces, in Conjunction with thoſe of Your Allies, over the French and Bavarians.

We

We cannot ſufficiently expreſs our Gratitude to Your Majeſty for Your careful and prudent Adminiſtration of Affairs, as well in regard to Your own Kingdoms, as the Zeal Your Majeſty has ſhewn for the Supporting Your Allies, by ſending ſo ſeaſonably a Powerful Army to their Aſſiſtance. The Advantage gained by theſe Succeſsful Actions (which is chiefly owing to the Bravery of Your Engliſh Troops, commanded by the Duke of Marlborough ) will, we hope, produce ſo good Ends, that the boundleſs Ambition of the French King and the Elector of Bavaria will be thereby effectually ſtopp'd, and the Liberties of Europe firmly eſtabliſhed in an honourable and laſting Peace.

That, for theſe Juſt Ends, Almighty GOD would with Bleſſings Crown Your Majeſty's Arms, and grant unto Your Majeſty a long and happy Reign over us, are the ſincere Wiſhes and hearty Prayers of Your moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

In Teſtimony whereof we have hereunto affixed our Common Seal.

The following Addreſs from the Grand Jury of the County Palatine of Cheſter, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Thomas Legh Eſq; introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Granville.

The humble Addreſs of the Grand Jury of the County Palatine of Cheſter, held upon the 12th day of September, 1704

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

OUR Hearts have been fil'd with great Joy, and our Tongues as equally employ'd, ſince firſt we heard what Glory and Succeſs had attended Your Majeſty's Arms, under the wiſe Conduct of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, (Conduct tru'y great in it ſelf, but owing all to Divine Providence;) And it is with extream Pleaſure we now perceive that Victory (under a Reign ſo Auſpicious) is not to be confined; That Succeſs, like Fame, has taken Wing, and already reach'd Gibraltar from the Danube. But what may we not expect, when a Heart entirely Engliſh fills the Throne; when Church of England Principles guard it, and You your ſelf appear at the Head of the Proteſtant Intereſt. Theſe are Bleſſings, and ſuch that cannot fail of every day producing more. And as Your Sacred Perſon is wonderfully adorned with Victories this Campaign, ſo our Prayers ſhall never be wanting for a Continuance of 'em. And as Your Reign has been hitherto Glorious ſo may Your Succeſs encreaſe, that France at laſt may be ſenſible that Engliſh Forces, under Native Conduct, are able to put a ſtop to their Te Deum's.

All which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Lisbon, Septemb. 16. The Glorious Succeſſes of the Arms of Her Majeſty and Her Allies, as well in the ſignal Victory over the French and Bavarians at Pleinheim in Germany, as in the Defeat of the Enemy's Fleet in the Mediterranean; the News whereof came to us almoſt at the ſame time, have occaſioned an univerſal Joy in this place, where Preparations are making for carrying on the War with Vigour againſt the Common Enemy; The Almirante of Caſtile has formed a very fine Regiment out of the Spaniſh and Iriſh Deſerters that are come over to us this Campagne; and the New Levies are carried on every where with good Succeſs. The Earl of Galway is gone to Guarda, to wait upon the Kings of Spain and Portugal, and has ordered all the Officers to be at their Poſts in Eight Days. The Engliſh Foot under Lieutenant-General Wyndham are at Serolico, 3 Leagues from thence; and Major-General Harvey, with the Horſe and Dragoons, is on his March to join them. They are all very well mounted, and our Forces in ſo good a Condition, that there are not above 30 left in the Hoſpitals. On the other hand we are aſſured that the French Horſe have ſuffered very much in their Marches, through the exceſſive Heat of the Saaſon; and that the Enemy in general are in want of Clothes and many other Neceſſaries; eſpecially the Spaniards, between whom and the French there are ſo great Differences, that their Commanders have thought it neceſſary they ſhould encamp aſunder. The French have ruined the Spaniſh Frontiers, for fear of our making Excurſions upon them; which has given great Diſſatisfaction to the Spaniards. The Portugueſe homeward bound Braſile Fleet, conſiſting of above 30 Ships richly laden, is arrived in our River. Fifteen hundred Men lie ready at Faro to be ſent into Gariſon at Gibraltar.

Warſaw, Septemb. 13. By the laſt Advices we received from Ruſſeland, the King of Sweden was there with his whole Army in full March towards Javarow; and it was believed that upon his coming to that Place, he would divide his Forces, in order to attack Lemberg and Zamoſch at the ſame time. The King of Poland is gone from hence towards the Poliſh Pruſſia, with a ſmall Number of Troops, but expects to be followed in Two or Three Days by all his Saxon and Muſcovite Forces, which are to Rendezvous at Zacrockzyn.

Vienna, Septemb. 17. His Imperial Majeſty has granted a Ceſſation of Arms to the Malecontents in Hungary, till the laſt of this Month; and Couriers were diſpatch'd the 13th Inſtant to the ſeveral Generals and Officers in that Kingdom, to forbear all farther Hoſtilities: We have ſince received Letters of the 14th from Berzent, with an Account of his accepting the Amneſty; and 'tis not doubted but we ſhall quickly have the ſame News from Ragorski. Orders are ſent from this Court to Baron Zundre and Monſieur Zellar, the two Miniſters of Bavaria and Cologne at Ratisbonne, to depart out of that Town in Five Days time, and out of the Empire in 20. The 14th Inſtant the Turkiſh Envoy, who has reſided here for ſome Weeks, had his Audience of Leave of the Emperor, and will in few days return to the Ottoman Porte. General Guttenſteyn is ſuſpended, for diſobeying the Orders he had received to detach five Battalions to Italy: He is to remain at Inſpruch, till he has anſwered to ſuch things as will be laid to his Charge; and in the mean time the Command of thoſe Forces is given to Baron Wetzel.

From the Duke of Marlborough's Camp at Weiſſenbourg, Sept. 22. Our Letters from the Army before Landau give the following Account of that Siege: On the 13th at night our Troops took Poſt with 1000 Men, commanded by two Colonels, at a Mill on the Canal on that ſide which is next the Gate of France, and repaired a Redoubt that was made two years ago at the Entrance of this Attack. The 14th at night a Redoubt which had been begun near the Gallows was finiſhed, and another was begun on the Ring-Ground above Wolmerſheim. The 15th at night they began to draw a Line of Communication between theſe two Redouts. The 17th they carried on their Trenches from the Redoubt near the Gallows towards the Town, and began to work on the Batteries: That night a Patrol of the Enemy fell in with part of the Detachment which was poſted to cover the Workmen; but they were ſoon obliged to retire with Loſs. A Deſerter gave Notice, that the Beſieged deſigned to make a great Sally the ſame night; whereupon ſome Battalions were ordered to reinforce the Troops in our Works; but the Enemy kept within, firing continually with their Cannon and ſmall Shot, as they have done ever ſince without Intermiſſion; notwithſtanding which the Works were carried on with ſo good Succeſs, that thoſe on the Right advanced within 500 Paces, and on the Left within 600 of the Counterſcarp. The 20th our Troops joined the two Attacks of the Right and Left by a Parellel of 1400 Paces; and notwithſtanding the great Fire the Enemy made both of their great and ſmall Shot, we had only two Men killed, and 11 wounded. The 21ſt they advanced from the Parallel, by two Traverſes on the Right and Left, 200 Paces towards the Town; ſo that they are come within 80 Paces of a little Half-moon before the Gate of France, and within 200 of the Glacis. The Fire from the Town killed us 5 Men, and wounded 34. In the afternoon the Beſieged made a great Sally with ſome Hundreds of Horſe and Foot, ſupported by a great Fire of their Cannon and Bombs: They advanced to our Works, but were vigorouſly repulſed; and though the Fire from the Cover'd Way and their other Works was continued without Intermiſſion for near two hours, we had only two Men killed, and 10 wounded; but the Enemy's Loſs in their Sally was very conſiderable. Laſt night the Beſiegers began to erect a Battery of 30 Pieces of Cannon.

Monſieur de Martigney, Chamberlain to the Duke of Lorrain, came hither the 18th Inſtant, with a Compliment from his Maſter to the Duke of Marlborough, to recommend his Country to his Grace's Protection, Count Oxenſtiern, who was formerly Envoy from the King of Sweden in England, and is now Governor of the Dutchy of Deuxponts, came likewiſe to wait upon his Grace. Mr. Stepney, Her Majeſty's Envoy Extraordinary to the Emperor, arrived here the 19th from Vienna. The Duke of Marlborough went from hence the 15th to the Camp before Landau, and upon his Return that night was ſeized with a Fit of an Ague; but his Grace is now perfectly recovered, and went again this morning, with Prince Eugene, and ſeveral General Officers, to the Camp before Landau, to wait upon the King of the Romans, who arrived there laſt night. We have Advice, that the Elector of Bavaria is marching with his Troops towards Brabant: We reckon they do not exceed 3000 Men, and thoſe in a very bad Condition.

Hague, Septemb. 30. The States Army under Monſieur d'Auverquerque is ſtill at Haneff. Monſieur d'Obdam's Conduct in the Battel of Eckeren the laſt Campagne, having been taken into Conſideration by the States of Holland, it was reſolved by the Majority of Votes, That he had done his Duty: But Eight of the Deputies proteſted againſt it. The Convoy from the Downes arrived yeſterday in the Maeſe.

Falmouth, Septemb. 18. Yeſterday came in here the St. Gaetano, Nicholas Campanella Maſter, of Genoua, homeward bound from London. The Maſter reports, That he ſaw Two French Privateers off of the Lyzard.

Hull, Septemb. 19. Yeſterday arrived here her Majeſty's Ships the Rocheſter Prize and Poſtillion, with ſeveral Merchant Ships under their Convoy, from London; amongſt whom were Three Ships laden with Wine from Portugal.

Portſmouth, Septemb. 21. On Tueſday laſt in the Afternoon Her Majeſty's Ship the Weymouth ſailed out of this Harbour to Spithead.

Yarmouth, Septemb. 22. The 17th Inſtant about 400 Sail of light Colliers ſailed out of our Road for Newcaſtle, under Convoy of Her Majeſty's Ships the Aſſiſtance and Queenborough; as did at the ſame time Her Majeſty's Ships the Rocheſter Prize and Poſtilion, with ſeveral Ships for Hull. On the 18th Her Majeſty's Ship the